The Issuer agrees, on any date on which a payment of Redemption Amount under these Conditions in respect of any ETI Securities becomes due, unconditionally to pay the ETI Security holders in same day cleared funds, the Redemption Amount in respect of the ETI Securities which is due and payable on that date.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in these Conditions, (1) payment of any Redemption Amount due under the ETI Securities pursuant to the Conditions made to the Issuing and Principal Paying Agent as provided in the Paying Agent Agreement shall, to that extent, satisfy the Issuer's obligation to make payments of Redemption Amount in respect of the ETI Securities to the ETI Security holders except to the extent that there is failure by the Issuing and Principal Paying Agent to pass such payment to the relevant ETI Security holders and (2) a payment of any Redemption Amount made after the due date or as a result of the ETI Securities becoming repayable following an Event of Default shall be deemed to have been made when the full amount due has been received by the Issuing and Principal Paying Agent and notice to such effect has been given by the Issuing and Principal Paying Agent to the ETI Security holders, except to the extent that there is failure by the Issuing and Principal Paying Agent to pass such payment to the relevant ETI Security holders.

If the Remaining Assets (whether by way of liquidation or enforcement) are insufficient, any outstanding claim of the Series Parties (other than the Issuing and Paying Agent) and the ETI Security holders against the Issuer remains unpaid, then such outstanding claim shall be extinguished, and no debt shall be owed by the Issuer in respect thereof. Following the extinguishment of any such claim, none of the Series Parties (other than the Issuing and Principal Paying Agent), the ETI Security holders or any other person acting on behalf of any of them shall be entitled to take any further steps against the Issuer or any of its officers, shareholders, corporate service providers or directors to recover any further sum in respect of the extinguished claim and no debt shall be owed to any such persons by the Issuer in respect of such further sum. 14. Issue of further Tranches and Series of ETI Securities

14.1. Further Tranches

The Issuer may, from time to time (without the consent of any ETI Security holders) in accordance with the Conditions and the Authorised Participant Agreement(s) create and issue further securities either having the same terms and conditions as the ETI Securities in all respects and so that such further issue shall be consolidated and form a single Series with the ETI Securities or upon such terms as the Issuer may determine at the time of their issue and/or incur further obligations relating to such securities.

The Issuer shall not issue ETI Securities of any Series to any person unless the Issue Price of such ETI Securities is equal to or greater than the Redemption Amount which would be payable in respect of such Securities on the relevant Subscription Date.

An Authorised Participant may request that the Issuer issue additional Tranches of the ETI Securities by delivering a valid Subscription Order subject to and in accordance with the terms of the relevant Authorised Participant Agreement.

The Issuer will only accept a Subscription Order and issue ETI Securities if:

- a) a Subscription Order is given by an Authorised Participant and determined to be valid by or on behalf of the Issuer;
- b) the acceptance of such Subscription Order will not cause any Subscription Limit for the ETI Securities to be exceeded; and
- c) all conditions precedent to an issue of the ETI Securities are satisfied.

In accordance with the terms of the Authorised Participant Agreement(s), the Issuer will not be obliged to accept any Subscription Order and/or issue ETI Securities if a Subscription Suspension Event has occurred and is continuing. If an Issuer Call Redemption Notice is delivered the last day on which the Issuer is required to accept a valid Subscription Order shall be the fifth Issuer Business Day preceding the related Redemption Day designated in such notice.

The Issuer may suspend the issuance of further ETI Securities at any time. If a Subscription Suspension Event occurs, the Issuer shall not accept any Subscription Orders for the ETI Securities with effect from the date of suspension specified in the relevant notice to the Calculation Agent and the Authorised Participants until such time (if any) as the Issuer notifies such Series Parties that it shall recommence the issue of further Tranches of the ETI Securities. The effective date of any such suspension will be specified in the related notice and will be a day not earlier than the Subscription Date following the date of such notice. The Issuer shall give notice to ETI Security holders in accordance with Condition 16 of any such suspension as soon as reasonably practicable after giving any notice of suspension of subscriptions.

In relation to any Subscription Order which has been accepted by or on behalf of the Issuer but in respect of which the Subscription Settlement Date has not yet occurred as at the date of the occurrence of an Event of Default, each such Subscription Order shall automatically be cancelled with effect from the date of the occurrence of such Event of Default.

In relation to any Subscription Order which is valid but in respect of which the ETI Securities are pending issue and settlement to the relevant Authorised Participant as at the date of delivery of an Event of Default Redemption Approval (due to the Subscription Settlement Date not having occurred at such date, the relevant Authorised Participant not having delivered in full the relevant subscription amount on a Subscription Settlement Date falling prior to such date, or otherwise), any such Subscription Order shall automatically be cancelled with effect from such date of delivery of an Event of Default Redemption Notice (as applicable).

If at any time after the occurrence of the Subscription Settlement Date in respect of which the relevant Authorised Participant has not paid in full the related subscription amount an Event of Default Redemption Approval is delivered, the ETI Securities issued on any such Subscription Settlement Date which are pending settlement to the relevant Authorised Participant shall automatically be cancelled with effect from the date of delivery of an Event of Default Redemption Notice (as applicable). ETI Securities requested for issue and subscribed for by an Authorised Participant may be held on an inventory basis by such Authorised Participant and offered for sale and/or sold over a period of time.

In relation to any Subscription Order, in satisfaction of the relevant subscription amount, the Issuer may agree with the relevant Authorised Participant to accept the delivery to, or to the order of, the Issuer of Underlying Securities which the Calculation Agent determines have a value on the Subscription Date, after taking account of any costs of transfer or delivery which are to be discharged by the Issuer, which is equal to or greater than the subscription amount.

Notwithstanding the above, the Issuer may from time-to-time issue ETI Securities of any Series to an investor on such terms as the Issuer and such investor may agree provided that the Issue Price of such ETI Securities shall not be less than the Redemption Amount which would be payable in respect of such Securities on the relevant Subscription Date.

For avoidance of doubt the Issuer may establish further programmes to issue any kind of securities without consent of the ETI Security holders.

15. Notices

15.1. All notices to ETI Security holders will be deemed to have been duly given and valid:

Any such notice shall be deemed to have been given to the holders of the ETI Securities on the Clearing System Business Day immediately following the day on which the notice was given to the Relevant Clearing System.

The courts of Liechtenstein are to have exclusive jurisdiction to settle any disputes that may arise out of or in connection with any ETI Securities and, accordingly, any legal action or proceedings arising out of or in connection with any ETI Securities (“Proceedings”) may be brought in such courts. The Issuer irrevocably submits to the jurisdiction of such courts and waives any objections to Proceedings in such courts on the ground of venue or on the ground that the Proceedings have been brought in an inconvenient forum. This submission is for the benefit of each of the ETI Security holders and shall not limit the right of any of them to take Proceedings in any other court of competent jurisdiction nor shall the taking of Proceedings in any one or more jurisdictions preclude the taking of Proceedings in any other jurisdiction (whether concurrently or not).

18. Service of process

The Issuer has by executing the Constituting Document irrevocably appointed the person specified therein as its process agent to receive, for it and on its behalf, service of process in any Proceedings in Liechtenstein. Service of process on such process agent shall be deemed valid service upon the Issuer whether or not it is forwarded to and received by the Issuer. The Issuer shall inform the ETI Security holders in writing of any change in its process agent’s address within 28 calendar days of such change. If for any reason such process agent ceases to be able to act as such or no longer has an address in Liechtenstein, the Issuer irrevocably agrees to appoint a substitute process agent in Liechtenstein.
